REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. This is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The closest prior art Glogau, Jordan WO 9825373 discloses a copy protection system/method that protects web sites and other works in computer readable form from unauthorized access.

JP2004303107 A, Okayama et al discloses a content protection system for preventing unauthorized use of contents when using distributed contents in a terminal.

However, neither Glogau nor Okayama singularly or in combination discloses the recited feature:

As per claim 20 " wherein the server security program distributes the content to a client system when the client system has the limited-use client program and wherein the limited-use client program is a web browser program configured to disable selected reproduction functions of the web browser program while the content distributed is detected as being displayed by the web browser program at the client system".

As per claims 84 and 85" providing an end-user at the client system with a web browser program configured to disable non-ephemeral reproduction functions of the web browser program while the protected content is detected as being displayed by the web browser program at the client system, and preventing, until compensation is received, non-ephemeral reproduction of the downloaded content, while the downloaded content is being displayed at the client system".
